Festival's Golfing Star Adds Another Victory

Bobby Nichols of Louisville, one of American golf's "great", who will play an 18-hole exhibition match at the Fulton Country Club during the Banana Festival in September, has added another championship victory to his growing list.

Nichols picked up top money of $12,000 last week end to win the $75,000 Houston golf classic, with an 11 over par, 273.

Nichols is the 1964 PGA champion. In the Houston competition he fought off the pressure and a record closing-round rush by Juan (Chi Chi) Rodriguez of Puerto Rico.

Nichols won the victory over the par 71 Sharpstown Country Club course, edging Rodriguez and Australian Bruce Devlin by one stroke for the title.

Nichols' rounds were 67, 69, 67 and 70.

Rodriguez fired a closing seven-under-par 64, a record for the Classic on seven birdies and 11 pars.

Nichols, for whom the Classic has been a kickoff to big money each year recently said, "I seem to get started here. I play well here every year." He won the tourney in 1962, beating Jack Nicklaus in a playoff.

Nichols birdied holes 1, 2, 8 and 10 and had bogeys on 5, 9, and 15, finishing with a 70.

He had short putts on the first and second holes and the birdies on No. 8 came on a 12-foot putt.

The pre-tournament favorites, Doug Sanders and Billy Casper, both finished in the money but far back in the field, Sanders with 280 on a final 68 and Casper at 286, with a closing 72.

Defending champion Mike Soucek shot a 71 and finished at 280 along with Sanders and two others.

Notebook

Every now and then I have to get desk-bound, to gather facts and figures about issues and to answer questions that are asked me by the many, many people I am seeing these days in connection with my campaign for State representative. I also have to stop long enough to go over Banana Festival plans with all interested individuals and to check on the progress of said plans.

I got that "ole Festival feeling" this week after reading some very interesting mail that has arrived in answer to some letters we have written. Perhaps the most exhilarating letter came from Tennessee Governor Frank Clement, who wrote that his Administration would be a financial supporter of

The executive board of the Banana Festival will meet tonight (Thursday) at the Chamber of Commerce office to discuss plans for the Candid Camera Revue, which was postponed from early March, due to conflicting events.

The Festival this year. The story concerning the support will be released officially when some other considerations are finalized, but to keep you informed on our progress, and to let you know that come May 26 we'll get to work in earnest on the Festival, I can give you only this information at this time so that you will get the same good feeling that I have received from Governor Clement's sincere interest in our Festival.

A letter came this week too, from one of Fulton's most ardent supporters, Kolb Brothers Drug Company in Paducah. The letter was sent to Bob Binford of Evans Drug Company, and delivered to Connie Pawlukiewicz, Festival secretary. Here it is . . . and thanks, Lou:

Dear Friends:

We are always glad to have the opportunity to participate in a small way, to the civic affairs of our fine friends and therefore we are enclosing a check for $100.00 for a contribution to the 1965 Banana Festival.

If at all possible, I am going to be there this year as I heard so many enthusiastic comments about the last one.

With kindest regards from all of us and wishing your fine city the most successful Festival yet, I am Yours sincerely, Louis C. Kolb

But the first contribution for this year's Festival came at a time when it was needed most of all. Sonny Puckett, one of the advisors to the Festival board and a fellow who is strictly sold on the event's merits, came in the office shortly after I assumed the presidency and said: "I want to make a $100 contribution to the Festival. It's the best home-town program in the United States and I want to keep it going." Sonny, his wife Vada Bell, and all of the folks at the Park Terrace Restaurant and motel promote the festival on a daily, year-round basis.

Another fine drug company, L. S. Dubois, Son and Company, also sent a check for $100 this week. They will never know how much we appreciate their help. And it is with similar gratitude that we acknowledge a check from the Big-Valu Food Stores. We think you'll appreciate their comments on our Festival too. Here they are: (Continued on page ten)

Beauty And Brains Prevail As Fulton High Names Its Three Top Graduates

Fulton High School's graduating class of 1965 will soon be gone from the hallowed halls of Fulton High, but it will not soon be forgotten, that's for sure. With 61 students in the class, it is one of the largest ever to be graduated in the history of the school. For four straight years the class has elected the homecoming queen (Nancy Treas, Sandra Cash, Sally Pirtle and Susan Walker, in that order) and besides that about fifty per cent of the class consistently made the honor roll.

Many of the graduates have been accepted in some of America's most distinguished colleges and universities. The three top graduates challenged mathematical computations, and ended up with three students who are "rare combinations of beauty and brains."

Betty Bennett and Nancy Treas tied for valedictorian of the Fulton High senior class, with a point standing of 2.972222. Sylvia Carden is Honors Day speaker with a point standing of 2.861111.

This is the first time in the history of the school that two students have tied for this honor. Both girls had only one "B" on their permanent record card for the four years in high school.

Before this year, the closest scholastic race in the school's history was when Charles Huddleston, with a perfect 3.0 standing, won the valedictory honor over Ruth Louise Butts by .03 of a point.

The two valedictorians will deliver their addresses at the annual commencement program at Carr Auditorium. There will be no salutatory.

Other honor graduates are Kenneth Morgan, Jerry Wells, Andy Batts, Jennifer Duncan, Phyllis Crocker, Marie Ruddle, Sallie Pirtle, Terry Willingham, Carol Luther, Wayman Hancock, Susan Walker, Margaret Omar, Shirley Bard, Sherry Milstead, Charles Mark Allen, Anita Kilgo, Stuart Voelpel and Greg Williamson. Betty is the daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Charles Robert Bennett. She has been a member of the Kennel staff for two years, serving as advertising manager and reporter. During her senior year she was co-editor of the GR-R-ROWL. She was a member of the National Honor Society two years; a member of Quill and Scroll one year; a member of the French Club two years, serving as president during her

Fulton Teachers Hear Speaker From Murray

The Fulton City Education Association held its last meeting of the year Tuesday, April 20, 1965 at 3 p. m. in the Fulton High School Science Room. The meeting was called to order by President Bobby Snider. The minutes of the previous meeting were read by Mrs. Her-ring; she also gave the financial report. A short business meeting preceded the program. Mrs. Gaylon Varden was elected to serve as secretary-treasurer for the 1965-66 school year. All other officers were elected for a two year term last year.

Miss Mary Forsee, librarian, Fulton City Elementary Schools, had charge of the program. She presented Miss Ethel Miller, Assistant Professor of Education, Murray State College, who gave a most inspiring talk on the Moral and Spiritual Values in Education.

Water Valley Farmer Injured From Gunshot

Jim Inman, retired farmer, is in critical condition in John Gaston Hospital in Memphis of a gunshot wound.

Friends said Mr. Inman shot himself accidentally about 4:30 Saturday afternoon.

They said they thought he went outside to shoot a squirrel. Apparently he stumbled, and the shotgun discharged.

A motorist saw him lying on the ground and stopped to help. He was taken first to Fulton Hospital then moved to the Memphis hospital, where surgery was performed late Saturday.

Reports received in The News office today (Wednesday) are that Mr. Inman is "holding his own" and that the seriousness of his condition is due to a heart condition and not the gun-shot wound.

Ward To Follow Through Guarantee Of Access Roads To Fulton From Parkway

Kentucky Highway Commissioner Henry Ward reported today that he will personally follow through on the matter to guarantee that there will be good access roads to Fulton from the proposed Purchase Parkway. The letter was in reply to an editorial that appeared in the Fulton County News on April 8.

The editorial set forth Fulton's unique location on the Kentucky-Tennessee borders, pointing out that, if the proposed Parkway is to be constructed on the basis of a recently published outline, it would encourage motorists to speed right by Fulton, thus losing this area and the State of Kentucky thousands of dollars in potential revenue from loss of sales and service to the tourists.

Mr. Ward's letter follows:

April 19, 1965

Mr. and Mrs. Paul Westpheling
P. O. Box 307
Fulton, Kentucky

Dear Paul and Jo:

I have read with understandable interest your editorial of April 8 entitled, "Four Entry Points To The New Parkway Will Help Fulton More Than Just Two!" I assure you of my understanding of the problem of proper access to communities and my assurance that I will personally follow through on this matter to attempt to guarantee that there will be good access to Fulton from the Purchase Parkway. Thus far, nothing except a corridor location has been selected and details relating to such matters as access points are yet to be determined.

The Brighton Engineering Company is providing over-all supervision of the development of plans for the Purchase Parkway and I am referring a copy of this letter and your editorial to Brighton Engineering and also to the section engineers, as well as to the Department of Highways' engineers who will be working on this detail. I am asking them to discuss this matter with me before steps are taken, toward the development of final plans.

Yours very truly,
Henry Ward
Commissioner

FHA Opens Full-Time Office In Clinton To Serve 3 Counties

The Farmers Home Administration has opened a new full time office in the Clinton bank building, Clinton, Kentucky. This office will serve Carlisle, Fulton and Hickman counties. The personnel serving this office are Sue Vanpool, county office clerk, and Raymond Hogue, county supervisor. Office hours will be from 8:00 a. m. to 12:00 and 1:00 to 5:00 p. m. Monday through Friday. The telephone number is 653-4103.

Mr. Hogue will have office hours in Bardwell from 1:00 to 3:00 p. m. on the second Friday of each month at the Soil Conservation Office. On the second and fourth Thursday of each month from 1:00 to 3:00 p. m. he will have office hours at Hickman in the county agent's office.

The Farmers Home Administration is an agency of the United States Department of Agriculture, set up to make loans to farmers and other people living in small towns and rural areas.

These loans are made for a large number of purposes which include loans to organize groups to establish rural water systems and recreation enterprises. Other loan services provided by Farmers

Home Administration are for the purchase or enlargement and improvement of farms, construction of farm buildings, and construction or repair of dwellings on both farm and non-farm tracts. Other purposes for which loans are made include credit for farm machinery, livestock, annual farm operating expenses and refinancing of certain debts.

Farmers Home Administration has loans designed to help those families who have a very low income to establish some new or extra income producing enterprises so that they can have a better standard of living. This includes loans to cooperatives whose purpose is to serve low income families on a non-profit basis. This applies to people who are farming, as well as to people living in rural areas and in towns of under 2500 population who are not farming.

The Farmers Home Administration is not in competition with local lending institutions and all FHA loans are made on the basis that the group or individual cannot get the credit elsewhere that is needed on terms and conditions that can be reasonably met.

The Ever-Growing Welfare State: Enemy Of Individual Initiative

What is the ultimate effect of a welfare state on the individual? A striking editorial which recently appeared in the Richmond, Virginia News Ledger answers the question this way:

"In Mount Ranier National Park, Wash., a ranger cautions visitors against feeding the animals. The ranger explains that deer grow accustomed to visitors handouts and lose the ability to feed themselves. Bears, he says, come to believe that free food is their due—and become grouchy and violent if they don't get it. Chipmunks and squirrels congregate where handouts are supplied, and thus upset the balance of nature.

"There is a lesson here for people—and for their governments."

There certainly is, and it's about the most important lesson we can learn. The welfare state is the enemy of individual initiative, of individual pride. It discourages effort, it encourages handouts.

Farm Safety Means Success.

That old phrase, "Oh, for the peace and quiet of the country," is probably used often in today's busy world, but a second look might show that the farm isn't always so peaceful.

One sure way to convince yourself it isn't is to take a long look at the accident tolls: an estimated 8,400 deaths and 780,000 injuries to farm residents last year, according to the National Safety Council.

Sounds a little incredible? Well, it's not. Each day many farmers work in the fields or in the barn, and suddenly somehow, sometime during the workday are injured or killed. Not only can an injury disrupt one or two workdays, but a permanent injury or death can totally change an entire farm or farm family.

The farm picture is constantly changing. With new machinery, chemicals and methods, it is a challenge to learn how to utilize them all safely. Unless you carry this new knowledge through in everyday practice, you are not fulfilling your responsibility to yourself and your family. You might, for example, know everything about a machine, but allow a boy barely able to reach the controls to handle a tractor.

What can safe farming mean to you? Success!

Life's Two-Legged Buzzards

A policeman from one of the communities devastated by the Palm Sunday tornado which ricocheted through six states was interviewed on radio. "As soon as the storm subsided," he said, "looters came from out of town. We weren't bothered by local residents—but it was these outsiders who drifted in to steal from the dead and injured."

Nature provides buzzards and vultures which clean the countryside of dead animals. And it seems that human nature also provides two-legged vultures who are always ready to take advantage of the unfortunate (whether it is picking the pockets of an unconscious traffic victim or looting the contents of a store or home wrecked by a storm.) While many rush in to help the victims of disaster, there are always a few who rush in to help themselves.

Here are two basic ways of looking at life: What is there in it for me? or How can I be of service to others? Few of us can spend all our time thinking about others, but we can remind ourselves that the world is full of other people—people with feelings, with hurts, with needs, with privileges. This trait was characteristic of Christ, as evidenced by his explanation that he "came not to be ministered unto, but to minister, and to give his life a ransom for many" (Mark 10:45).

—Robert J. Hastings

Kentucky Population Growth Spiraling

From 1960-63 Kentucky's rate of population growth tripled the historical rate which dominated the period 1950-60. The 1960-63 annual rate of growth was 27.100 compared to only 9.000 yearly for the period 1950-60. The ratio of natural population increase lost to out-migration was 35 percent from 1960-63 compared to 81 percent during 1950-60. The state is thus making progress in retaining its natural rate of population increase.

If Kentucky continues the 1960-63 rate of growth over the next twelve years, the state is expected to gain 338,000 population by 1975 and have a total population of 3,464,000. On the other hand, if industrialization and economic development are stepped up to the point where the state is not only retaining its natural increase in population but also attracting an additional 20 percent from immigration, Kentucky will gain 586,000 population in the twelve-year period 1963-75 and have a total population on July 1, 1975 of 3,712,000, says the College of Commerce at UK, in a study released this week.

The Sword Of Hope

The Sword of Hope is the symbol that to most Americans means, "Help Fight Cancer." As the registered trademark of the American Cancer Society, it has for 36 years reflected the A. C. S. image and identity. Today it remains the insignia of the only voluntary health organization fighting cancer on the broad fronts of research, education and service. It is the emblem that guides contributors who seek to make sure that their gifts go to the traditional A. C. S.

STRICTLY BUSINESS

By McFeeters

"Let's face it, J.B., the coffee break has gotten out of hand!"

April 27, 1945

Meeting in regular session April 24 at the Youth Center, the Young Men's Business Club held a brief business session. Reports were heard from committees, including the waste paper drive and progress on the Memorial on Lake Street in honor of the war dead. Several new members were introduced, including D. H. Williams, Charles Rice and Happy Hogan.

Honor Roll fifth term, 1945, for Fulton High had four all A students - Patricia O'Connor, Read Holland, Jimmy James and Billy Murphy.

"Me and My Shadow," the senior play for South Fulton high school, will be presented April 27 at the school auditorium. Included in the cast are: Wayne McClure, Doris Jones, Rebecca Kimbel, Evelyn Robey, Billy Lee Clark, Priscilla Croft, Jane Bynum, Melvin Yates and James Keith Hastings.

Sparks Brothers Shows will be at Fairfield Park in Fulton for one week, beginning April 30, under the auspices of the Young Men's Business Club of Fulton.

A party and banquet was given April 22 at the home of Mrs. Savannah Grissom near Chestnut Glade, in honor of her son, Sgt. Tilet R. Grissom, who is home on leave after 40 months overseas. More than a hundred friends and relatives gathered to welcome home Sgt. Grissom and the occasion was enjoyed by all present.

William G. Nash, dean of Murray State College, is scheduled to deliver the commencement address to the graduating class of Fulton High School on May 24. Only 25 students, the smallest in the history of the school, are in the graduating class.

From Latham correspondent: News came over the radio and also in the paper that six Tennesseans had been liberated from a German prison camp. Among these listed was Ellis McClain of Martin Route 3. We all rejoice with his relatives.

From Fulton Route 3: A family reunion was held at Mr. and Mrs. Andrew Williams for Pvt. Bob Cole Sunday, April 29. He is a brother of Mr. Williams and is ready for overseas duty.

Cpl. Joe W. Treas, son of Mr. and Mrs. E. J. McCollum of Fulton, has been given an honorable discharge. Cpl. Treas was stationed in New Guinea for a while, and was later wounded while in the Philippines.

100 Years Ago This Week

An historical review of the Civil War day by day in Kentucky, as reviewed by the Kentucky Civil War Commission
By JOE JORDAN

One hundred years ago this week, Gov. Thomas E. Bramlette presided at a large public meeting in Louisville, at which resolutions of respect to the memory of President Lincoln were adopted. The governor and U. S. Senator James Guthrie addressed the meeting. The next day was observed as a day of humiliation and sorrow. Business houses were closed; a funeral procession three miles long marched through the streets of the state's largest city. Similar demonstrations took place in other Kentucky cities.

Maj. Gen. John M. Palmer, military governor of Kentucky, had published an order which said that any returning Confederate soldiers who reported and registered their names with Union Army authorities would have his full protection. One who did so was Capt. Mat Carey of Newport. Nevertheless, he was called upon by men described as "violent stay-at-home patriots," who warned him to get out of Newport at once. He complied. Provost Marshal W. H. Bennett issued a statement calling "upon all good citizens to aid him in preserving the public peace, and in protecting from injury those who have Gen. Palmer's pledge for their protection and security; they shall be protected by all means at his disposal."

In a ceremony at Camp Nelson, Maj. Gen. S. G. Burbridge, whom Gen. Palmer had relieved, was presented with a sword, belt and spurs that had cost $1,000. The money had been collected from Negro soldiers of the Fifth and Sixth Brigades, U. S. Colored Cavalry of Kentucky. Burbridge was referred to as "the pioneer of freedom to the slaves of Kentucky."

Confederate soldiers from Kentucky who were still under arms, including members of three cavalry brigades that had been serving in southwestern Virginia, continued riding south to join the Confederate force which Gen. Joseph E. Johnston commanded in North Carolina. The Union Army's Maj. Gen. George Stoneman, with 4000 cavalry and a battery of artillery, was known to have marched from Virginia into North Carolina the day Lee surrendered. The Kentucky Confederates had reports that he occupied the mountain gaps they would have to pass through; they expected to have to fight him.

"The reports that the gaps were occupied by the enemy proved untrue, and we entered North Carolina without seeing a Federal," Basil Duke wrote in his "History of Morgan's Cavalry." At Statesville, Brig. Gen. John Echols turned off to go directly to Johnston's camp; Duke headed for Lincoln, where he expected to find the horses belonging to his brigade. He received word that a part of Stoneman's force was also approaching Lincoln. "The enemy's column moved upon a road which approached closely to the one by which we were marching. Our scouts were fighting, during the afternoon, upon the byroads which connected the main ones." When the enemy won the race, Duke bypassed the town and marched to Charlotte, where he found other Confederate troops.

Kentucky Windage

By P. W.

There was some consternation around the office Monday of this week on receipt of a notice from the Post Office that a subscriber living in Elkhart, Indiana had "moved and left no address."

Elkhart, you know, was in the path of the recent series of tornadoes that devastated the great lakes region a couple of weeks ago.

But things turned out all right. His home wasn't blown away, he had merely moved back to Water Valley and forgot to tell us.

The assistant Surgeon General of the U. S. Public health service announced this week that "within the next few months, an additional 11 million people in the nation will be drinking artificially-flouridated water". The addition of this group will raise the U. S. total to nearly 60 million people, plus an additional seven million more whose water contains natural flouridation.

Where's Fulton? We're not in the bunch! We voted flouridation down several years ago after too many uninformed people listened to—and believed—cries that flouridation would "poison" the city water; a downright absurdity.

So our children's teeth continue to rot with abnormal cavities, while we sit here and do nothing about it. Isn't that ridiculous? Flourine could be added to our city drinking water as a tasteless teeth-building additive at a cost of 15 CENTS per family per YEAR. Can you think of anything cheaper than that?

And that isn't all. The DENTISTS endorse flourine. The DOCTORS endorse flourine. The HEALTH Department endorses flourine.

You know, we COULD take another vote on this matter this fall and catch up with the rest of the country. We would be doing an awful lot of youngsters an awful big favor in giving them better teeth. Think it over.

Some say that the switch engine that plays up and down Lake Street early every morning has a horn that sounds like the mating call of a bull moose. Others say that it resembles the charging blast of a rogue elephant. Some wives say it sounds like their husband as he arrives at the breakfast table.

Whatever it sounds like, it's different. It shatters the peace and quiet of a dewy spring morning; it drowns out the calls of the songbirds that accompany you all the way downtown; it snaps you out of your reverie and lets you know with a great sort of finality that you have arrived at the office and it's time to get down to work.

My name-of-the-month award goes to a group up in Missouri that call themselves "The Un-flushables." Although the name is applied to a bowling team, its natural habitat suggests a rock-throwing party playing "The leader of the Laundromat" and all the rest of that idiom.

SCATTERED PATTEN

About People and Things

A glorious Easter has come and gone; with it came the time for rededication and renewal. The "something new to wear for Easter" is symbolic of putting away the things of the past. The freshly budded lillies, the candles, the women's frilly hats are all a part of the joy of the day. The Twin Cities were filled with the brightness of the new spring bonnets. Each hat seemed to be followed by a camera and a fresh roll of film. Just wonder how many people had their pictures taken in all their finery. No one could miss Marie Bushart and children, Jim and Nancy, snapping away at each other.

Easter time also brings the "un-glorious" thing known as spring cleaning, with the recurring thought of why do manufacturers always feel they have to put out a "new and improved" product which takes so much more work than the perfectly effective old one. And wouldn't it be nice if everyone could use just the kind of dirt they use on TV? You know the kind... all it takes is the flick of a cloth, the swish of a mop, the whisk of a broom, the whole house just gleams, and no one is ever tired or mused.

There were so many, many visitors here for Easter: Peggy and Robert Koeling of Dallas, with their children were visiting Peggy's mother, Mrs. Clyde Williams, Sr., and brother Clyde Williams, Jr.

Mr. and Mrs. Billy Carr of Louisville spent the weekend with his mother, Mrs. Myrtle Carr and sister, Mrs. Leslie Weeks.

Mrs. Carmon Morrow of Fort Lauderdale, Fla., visited with her daughter, Mrs. Robert Rudolph.

Mr. and Mrs. Henry Dunn entertained his mother, Mrs. Henry Dunn, Sr. and sister, Mrs. Robert Gray Ford of Fort Lauderdale.

Mr. and Mrs. James McDade and daughter, Jean, of Grand Prairie, Texas visited with relatives and friends.

Miss Carolinda Hales who is a student at the University of Louisher sister, Mrs. Milton Exum. Mrs. Harry Platt of Centralia, Ill., spent Easter weekend with relatives in Fulton.

Mrs. Cammie Newton and Miss Dorothy Newton of Jackson were Sunday visitors here.

Mr. and Mrs. Paul Laine and children have returned to Charleston, W. Va., after spending Easter with his parents in Fulton.

P. D. Blaylock spent Easter weekend with his parents, Mr. and Mrs. Paul Blaylock.

Corinne and Dub Burnette had a full, happy household what with having George and Jane and daughters, Beth and Teri here from Louisville. George and Jane will soon be making their home in Mayfield and are happily making plans for their "return". Bill was here for the holidays from Memphis State.

Jean Burnette, who teaches in San Bernardino, California, has just returned to the mainland after a trip to Hawaii. She flew there on a Teachers' Tour. While there, a group of the teachers rented a jeep to see the more inaccessible parts of the island. 'Twas a rugged and bumpy, but almost unbelievably beautiful, ten mile trip.

When a woman decorates her home and uses pretty colors, that's not new; she strives to make her home lovely all the time. But what is news are the perfectly yummy colors being used on some of the buildings in town. Wade Furniture Company and the Sherwin Williams Paint Store are a matched set on lower Lake Street and make that end of the street look just fine.

Clarice Thorpe has had her building done in that some shade of what can only be called "misty green" and white. Upper Lake Street is a riot of colors, gold, grey, green, yellow. The town is getting ready for the Clean Up - Fix up - Paint Up Week and while it may look like the tag end of a rainbow, no one can say that it is not sparkling and clean.

And speaking of Clean Up - Fix Up - Paint Up Week, did you know that there are one hundred and twenty entries for the Kiddies' Parade? That makes it the biggest ever! Make sure you come and see the efforts these youngsters have put forth... it's 10 o'clock, you know, on Saturday, April 24.

Miss Carol McNeilly spent the weekend with her parents, Mr. and Mrs. Richard McNeilly.

Mr. and Mrs. Russ DeLong and daughter were here with her parents, Mr. and Mrs. J. H. Patterson.

Little Jimmy Lawson and his mother Mrs. James E. Lawson were home for Easter.

Mr. and Mrs. Hampton Lillard and family of Carbondale, Ill., spent the weekend here.

Mrs. Wayne White and children are visiting her parents, Mr. and Mrs. J. Fred Gibson, for a week.

Mrs. H. E. Harrison of Atlanta, Ga., is spending this week with

Judy Kay Barron, Charlie Betts To Be Married In May Ceremony

Miss Judy Kay Barron

Mr. and Mrs. Phillip Barron of Fulton, Kentucky, have announced the engagement of their daughter, Judy Kay, to Charlie David Betts, son of Mr. and Mrs. Allen Betts of Martin, Tennessee.

Miss Barron is a senior at Fulton High School.

Mr. Betts is a 1962 graduate of Martin High School, a graduate of Tennessee Military Academy, and is a Second Lieutenant in the Tennessee National Guard. He is at present employed by the American Metal Products Company of Union City, Tennessee.

The wedding will take place at three o'clock in the afternoon on Sunday, May 30, in the Nazarene Church. The ceremony will be performed by Reverend Riley Lawrence, pastor of the church.

No formal invitations are being sent, but all friends and relatives are cordially invited.

It's "Dogwood Sunday" At Cape Girardeau

Each year, from 1000 to 1400 carloads of nature lovers converge on the Trail of Tears State Park on "Dogwood Sunday" to view one of the heaviest concentrations of dogwood in the Midwest.

Sunday, April 25th will again see thousands of viewers out to enjoy the profuse bloom along this area of the park which is paved for pleasant driving. The Trail of Tears Park is 8 miles north of Cape Girardeau on Route V.

Drive maps and copies of the "Legend of the Dogwood" may be secured at Wimpy's Drive-In at the intersection of U. S. 61 and Cape Rock Drive. The route will be plainly marked with orange arrows.

The Chamber of Commerce, Jaycees and Jaycee wives who sponsor the tour extend a cordial welcome to all Sunday drivers to make the tour.

Phone Company Bringing In "Teachers" To Help Us Learn To Use The New Dial System

Members of the Southern Bell Telephone Company's Customer Consultant Bureau will begin calling all subscribers in Fulton and South Fulton this Friday, according to an announcement made today by Mrs. Barbara Orr, head of the bureau for the Paducah District.

"Five of our girls will be calling to advise people about proper use of the dial system, Direct Distance Dialing, and other phases of the conversion program which is scheduled for June 20," said Mrs. Orr.

The calls will also be made to test dialing equipment and to be sure that the customer's dial or Touch-Tone phones are working properly.

"It's real important that everyone has a 'Blue Book of Telephone Numbers' because part of our calling procedure involves material in it. The books were mailed out this week and if anyone hasn't received a copy they can obtain one by calling the Southern Bell Business office at 9000," said Mrs. Orr.

It will take five to six weeks to call everyone and the girls who will do the calling are: Mrs. Pauline Robie, Mrs. Clara King and Mrs. Violet Hosie, long distance operators from Paducah. Mrs. Zearle Robie, operator from Fulton, and Mrs. Eleanor Mathis, temporary operator from Fulton, are also part of the group.

Future Nurses Club Hears Mrs. Braswell

The Future Nurses Club met Wednesday, April 14, 1965, in the Farm Room. The president, Margaret Omar, called the meeting to order and Letha Exum, secretary, read the minutes of the last meeting.

Mrs. Braswell, sponsor of the club, discussed tuberculosis, a disease of the lungs. The meeting was dismissed by Margaret Omar.

WORDS I NEVER EXPECTED TO HEAR

"I know this is the third pay increase we've offered this year, but won't you please take it anyway?"

"No reservation? Let's see, a party of 10... oh yes, I can seat you immediately right over here by the window."

"Sorry, but one drink per customer is the limit in this bar. We're opposed to heavy use of alcohol!"

With JIM PRYOR
Agricultural Agent, Illinois Central Railroad
Productive Soil... Our Responsibility

Soil fertility is the basis of human progress because we must have an assured food supply before we dare take time to do any of the tasks that are before us. The better the farmer manages his land, the more muscle, brain and creativity will be released to establish a high standard of living and build a Christian civilization upon this earth.

Land use is one of the oldest arts, and one of the first to be improved upon by science. Much top soil has been destroyed by greedy or ignorant usage. Vast numbers of people are hungry today, partially because of this misuse. Due to the application of scientific knowledge some land has maintained its fertility. Many secrets of proper farming have been known to man since Biblical times, but young America forgot the lessons of the centuries and had to be taught again, and sometimes it was the hard way. Since the 1930's, however, we have made much progress in conservation methods.

Today's farmer, who must be a scientist and engineer as well as a steward of the soil, has a responsibility. Great quantities of farm products leave the farms of America daily, and their residues go into the sewage systems and dumps of our great cities daily. We must find a method to restore this organic matter and humus to our soil.

The legumes which manufacture nitrogen from the air are no longer equal to the task. It is fortunate that we have the knowledge to make nitrogen from the air in electrical plants. We can also derive nitrogen from petroleum, which is a product of the decomposition of plants of ages past. We have storehouses full of phosphorus, potash and other plant nutrients to fortify the soil so that it will nourish plants. We mine these materials from the earth and improve their availability by processing, much as we cook food in order to make it more digestible.

The traditions of good farming and the scientific knowledge of recent generations together are not adequate for the demands of the future. We have much to learn about the function and the balance of the billions of bacteria that live in every cubic inch of our farm land. It is thought by some that a knowledge of the big four: nitrogen, phosphate, potash and calcium is not enough, but that trace elements, enzymes and other factors still unlabeled will have a marked influence on the way land will produce for future generations.

Grain Program Setting Records

Preliminary sign-up figures for the 1965 grain program indicate that new records may be set, Ed Jones, Chairman, Agricultural Stabilization and Conservation State Committee, said today. Based on almost-complete State returns through March 25, the program throughout the country has 1,373,709 producers signed up to divert 34.1 million acres. This acreage for diversion is within 1 percent of last year's record 34.3 million acres.

Including farms signed up under the program's malting barley provision, the 1965 feed grain program has 1,378,138 producers signed up—41,000 more than the previous record set in 1962. Base acreage on enrolled farms also is at a new high of 79.8 million acres as compared with the 1964 record of 77.7 million acres.

In Tennessee, 51,333 producers have signed up to take part in the 1965 feed grain program, compared with 48,112 signing up in 1964. Acreage for diversion in the State totals 691,437 acres for 1965, compared with 646,857 acres in 1964.

Phone Subscribers Mailed Blue Books

Southern Bell subscribers in Fulton, South Fulton, Clinton and Hickman this week are receiving copies of a "Blue Book of Telephone Numbers."

"We urgently request everyone to study the books carefully between now and June 20, the conversion date, because they contain a great deal of information about the new telephone services," said Curt Mathis, local Manager.

OBION COUNTY

FEEDER CALVES SELL GOOD

Last week the Obion County Livestock Association had the largest Spring Feeder Calf Sale ever conducted by the local association when they sold 414 feeder calves for a total of $45,565.29. The calves averaged selling for $110.06.

The top pen was a pen of 388 pound Choice Hereford Steers selling for $24.00 per CWT. The bulk of the good and choice steers sold from $22.50 to $23.00 and most mediums ranged from $21.00 to $22.00.

The heifer top price was a pen of good Angus Heifers weighing 435 pounds selling for $23.00 per hundred. The bulk of the good and choice heifers sold from $19.00 to $20.00 and most mediums sold from $18.00 to $19.00.

The Feeder Calf Sale committee considers the sale very successful with over 95 percent of the calves selling to local livestock buyers. The Feeder Calf Committee of the local livestock committee is composed of Johnny Walls, Paul Grisham, Rufus Taylor, Charles Powell, and W. T. Garrigan, Jr.

ANOTHER RAINY WEEK

Another week passes and no field work for Obion County farmers. This field idleness is about to get the best of the farmers. When weather does clear up and ground dries up this may mean running day and night. But as the old saying goes "we're never failed to get our crops planted and harvested."

LOOK AT YOUR ALFALFA

If you haven't been in your alfalfa field this week - go look at your alfalfa. Last week I was in 19 alfalfa fields and found a large number of the alfalfa weevil worms in 17 of the alfalfa fields.

The forms were small but we think that the control measures for killing the worms should start before this week is over. We will need to spray the alfalfa twice before the first cutting with Malathion at the rate of 2 1/2 pints of 55 percent Malathion per acre.

DEATHS

Noah D. Simpson

Noah D. Simpson, 80, father of J. D. Simpson of Fulton, died on April 17 at his home, 637 Wilford Street, in Mayfield.

In addition to J. D., he is survived by his wife; two daughters, Farrar Gargus of Mayfield and Wyllodene Wright of Nashville; one brother, Virgil Simpson of Los Angeles; two sisters, Mrs. Ethel Harding of Mayfield and Mrs. Flora Kemp of Daytona Beach, Fla.; six grandchildren and five great grandchildren.

Funeral services were held on May 20 in Roberts Funeral Home chapel, Mayfield, with Bro. McKendree, of the North Side Church of Christ in Mayfield, officiating. Burial was in the Williams Cemetery in Weakley County.

Pallbearers were Burnett Gargus, Paul Dill, A. R. Austin, Ed Simpson, Billy Joe and James Boyd Harding.

Newt Easley

Funeral services for Newt Easley were held Tuesday in the Cuba Church of Christ, with Bro. Henry Hargus and Bro. Donald Hall officiating. Burial was in the church cemetery. Roberts Funeral home was in charge.

Mrs. Easley, 83, died suddenly at his home, Route 1, Lynnvile, last Sunday. He was a retired farmer.

Surviving are one daughter, Mrs. Leslie Howard, Route 1, Lynnvile; three sons, Marvin Easley of Fulton, Coy Easley of Mayfield and Wilson Easley of Detroit; five grandchildren and five great grandchildren.

Mrs. Paul Wade Seeks Constant Cancer Detection

"I am asking every woman in South Fulton for just five minutes of her time each month, every month - five minutes which might save her life," Mrs. Paul Wade, supervisor of nurses at Hillview Hospital, made the appeal today as the American Cancer Society announced that in 1965 alone some 62,000 American women will learn that the lump in their breast has been diagnosed as cancer.

"When breast cancer is found early, before it has spread," Mrs. Wade said, "better than eight out of ten women can be saved. When the diagnosis is made later, the chances of survival drop to less than half. A few minutes spent in breast self-examination once a month can save the lives of thousands of women through early diagnosis."

Breast cancer claims the lives of more women than any other type of cancer. This year, according to the American Cancer Society, 26,000 women will die, many of whom might have been saved.

"The tragic thing," Mrs. Wade went on to say, "is that the death rate from breast cancer could and should be falling each year, but it isn't. Many women are afraid to examine themselves regularly, afraid they will find a lump in their breast. Not all tumors mean cancer. More often they are benign, harmless. But any thickening or lump should mean an immediate visit to a physician."

In addition to the monthly self-examination, Mrs. Wade urged all women to have a health check-up once a year by a physician. This will include a breast examination, as well as a pelvic examination, and a "Pap" smear test - brief and painless - which insures protection against cancer of the uterus.

Pepsi-Cola Unveils "Dream House" And Shopping Spree Idea

Pepsi Cola Company is offering a lucky American consumer a dream house . . . guaranteed problem free.

The house, a Johns-Manville ranch-style home complete with kitchen appliances and lot (a $40,000 value) is part of the first prize in Pepsi's spectacular 1965 $2,000,000 Shopping Spree promotion. This contest, according to Pepsi, will be the single largest promotion in the history of American business.

The other part of the first prize is a "houseful" of groceries. The lucky winner gets to fill the house by means of a free grocery Shopping Spree for the entire family. They'll have 30 minutes to race up and down the aisles of their favorite food store, grabbing all the groceries they can. Pepsi-Cola will pay the full retail cost of all the food items collected.

There will be over 150,000 other prizes. These will include more family Shopping Sprees, ten new Oldsmobile Vista-Cruiser station wagons, and thousands of gift certificates (some worth $1,000 each), redeemable for merchandise of the winners' choice.

And still there will be more — a local aspect to the Shopping Spree promotion. Each week for six weeks, the local Pepsi Bottler will be awarding 29 gift certificates valued from $2.00 to $25.00 each.

● AUSTIN SPRINGS By Mrs. Carey Frieids

Miss Ruth Harris left Saturday for her home in Tallahassee, Fla., after spending the past week at the bedside of her mother, Mrs. T. T. Harris.

Zack McClure has been very sick and confined to his bed for the past few weeks, suffering from complications. Dr. Wilson, of Dresden, is the attending physician. We hope for him a very soon recovery.

Rev. Russell Rodgers filled his regular appointment at New Salem Baptist Church the past Sunday at 11 a. m. and the evening service, held preceding the Baptist Training Union.

Stanley Ford is suffering some infection in his toe that has caused considerable pain, thus requiring medication.

Reports from the bedside of J. W. Bynum, who is a patient in the Baptist Hospital in Memphis, where he has undergone surgery a week ago, are now favorable and all friends here wish for him a most speedy recovery.

Mr. and Mrs. David Lassiter and little daughter, Jacqueline, arrived Saturday from Akron, Ohio, to spend the Easter holidays with their parents, Mr. and Mrs. Buton Lassiter, near here, and Mr. and Mrs. Mancel Wright of Dresden Route. They are having a nice visit with all relatives.

Miss Sammie Jane Mathis returned home from Hillview Hospital Thursday, after several days treatment for pneumonia. She is improved, to the delight of all friends, and will return to Cuba, Ky. High School in a few days.

All the friends of Wess Jones will be glad to know he is now at home, after a sojourn of several days in Hillview Hospital, undergoing some treatment.

Mr. and Mrs. Jackie Warren are planning to rebuild their house, recently destroyed by fire here. At the present they are living with their parents, Mr. and Mrs. Raymond Griffith.

Mrs. Dave Mathis is about the same and has been indisposed the past week. We hope she will soon be restored.

Mr. and Mrs. George Haygood and children, of Elgin, Ill., were here for the Easter holidays with parents, Mr. and Mrs. Dave Mathis of this village and Mr. and Mrs. Alvis Haygood of Fulton, Route 3.

EUROPEAN TOUR

Barry Adams and Barry Roper of Fulton are members of the Murray State College A Cappella choir, which will represent the College and the State on a 21-day tour of European countries in June.

Lipscomb Plans High School Day

High School students, ninth through 12th grades, are invited to be guests of David Lipscomb College, Nashville, Tenn., May 1, for annual High School Day activities, including a free picnic lunch.

Last year 1090 visitors registered from 153 cities and towns in Alabama, Georgia, Illinois, Indiana, Kentucky, Mississippi, Ohio, and West Virginia. From 1100 to 1200 are expected this year, Vice-President Willard Collins, director of the program, said this week.

New Proposal Suggests Election Of A State Board Of Education

The State superintendent of public instruction would be appointed by a State Board of Education elected by the people, under a proposal approved by the education, health and welfare committee of the Constitution Revision Assembly.

The superintendent, who may not succeed himself, is now one of nine statewide officials elected every four years by the people. The present State board of seven members is now appointed by the Governor.

Procedure of the committee at an April 13 meeting in the State Capitol was to conduct a public hearing on the question, clear the proposal through a subcommittee on education, and then submit it for approval to the full committee.

The committee, headed by Rumsey B. Taylor, Sr., Princeton, is now ready to submit this recommendation with any others it may have to the full assembly for approval before ultimate submission to a vote by the people.

At the hearing in the House Chamber, Dr. Harry M. Sparks, current superintendent of public instruction, and J. Marvin Dodson, executive secretary of the Kentucky Education Association, stated they believe that any revision of the present 1891 Constitution which strips voters of the power to elect either superintendents or the board that appoints superintendents would be defeated at the polls.

Appointment of the superintendent by an elected board has been advocated for some time by the State Department of Education, the Kentucky Education Association, the Kentucky Association of School Administrators, and the Kentucky School Boards Association.

The same principle has been endorsed by the Kentucky Congress of Parents and Teachers and the Kentucky Farm Bureau Federation. A spokesman for the Kentucky Federation of Woman's Clubs urged its adoption at the committee's public hearing.

Announcement of the result of a poll of school board members in the state's 204 school districts on three proposals was made by Maurice Bement, executive secretary of the school boards association.

With 10 points for first choice, five for second, and one for third, the results were: appointment by an elected board, 918; election by popular vote on a nonpartisan ballot, 420; appointment by board named by governor, 183.

Dr. Sparks said that since World War II, nine states have provided for the election of state boards of education. He added that despite efforts by pressure groups no state had returned to the appointive system for state board members.

In a summary of his position on the question, Dr. Sparks added the people of Kentucky do not want their state board of education appointed by the governor. He said an elected State board would insulate the schools from political control.

To The Voters of Fulton County

I wish to make public my announcement for the office of Sheriff of Fulton County, subject to the action of the Democratic Primary election May 25, 1965.

Having been your sheriff for one term, I feel that I can use the past experience to the benefit of this office. I have been a law-enforcement officer for several years. I served on the police force at Fulton for approximately four years and during those four years I reached the position of chief. I served as deputy sheriff of Fulton County for two years and as a policeman for more than a year in Hickman.

Regardless of the dangers involved, I have always fulfilled my job as a law-enforcement officer. I most earnestly and sincerely pledge myself to do to the best of my ability all the jobs pertaining to the office of sheriff, if given the opportunity to serve you.

Please consider this announcement as my personal plea for your vote and influence.

SINCERELY,

M. E. "Red" GARRISON

Poetry Press Accepts Poem By Talented Miss Sara Jane Poe

Miss Sara Jane Poe, a junior at Fulton High School, was notified Monday that her poem "Reality" has been accepted for publication by the National High School Poetry Press. She is the daughter of Dr. and Mrs. J. A. Poe.

The poetry association prints a different anthology of student poetry each semester of the school year. Students from all over the United States submit their poems through the English Department of their school. The poems are then judged by the Poetry Press, whose headquarters are in Los Angeles, California. Copies of the anthologies are available to students and teachers at a cost of two dollars.

The following is Sara Jane's free verse poem entitled "Reality."

REALITY

I am an Amazon
I am a Prometheus bearing fire.
I am strong because of the strong,
I am secure, safe.
Each sheltered day I smile.
I am happy because of the sad,
I am living in the past,
I am not Atlas.
I sink under the weight,
I am afraid and weak,
No wall surrounds me,
No one softens the blows,
I am alone,
Crying,
Aching.
No one hears, no one comes.
I know.
It's now.

SCATTERED PATTERN

TIME MARCHES ON DEPARTMENT: Eating Easter Sunday breakfast at the Derby with the family, we found that identifying the home-folks was a mighty difficult task, what with all those new clothes 'n everything. Everybody looked like glamorous stars of some kind or another... that's why we had to look mighty hard and long at a lovely young lady seated opposite from us, who looked like somebody we know very well. Discounting the Easter look, we found that the object of our attention was correct... it was Nancy Adams, looking like Fifth Avenue, home for a quick trip, en route to Chicago from New York for a personal appearance. She was with her mother, which prompted a dressed up lady in our family to observe... "which one is the young Adams lady?"

And in the same department, we find James Warren and his son Hal, strolling down Main Street in this beautiful Spring weather. Hal has finished his studies at Memphis State preparatory to entering law school this Fall, and is home until then getting some experience in his father's office. It is evident that such a nice associate, even temporary, couldn't happen to a prouder Dad, and at such a busy time, too.

Her visit was short, but pleasant and oh so welcome! Ella Doyle, en route to a new and completely fabulous assignment in Fort Wayne, Indiana crowded in a lot of pleasure for the home-folks, and particularly for her old friend Susan (McDaniel) Evces, who with her husband Chuck, visited her mother and sister Terry, for Easter. We'll wait for Ella to write us about her new job before we attempt to tell you about it.

We were about to call it a day, late Sunday afternoon, when we heard some familiar voices calling "anybody home." A carload of seven of our nieces and nephews were "out riding" and drove up here from Clarksdale, Mississippi... a round trip of 414 miles. They stayed for a quick hamburger supper and then left. Wonder where they would have gone if they had decided to take a long trip?

Mrs. Fannie Williams Makes Known Engagement Of Daughter, Sandra

Miss Sandra Williams

Announcement has been made of the engagement of Miss Sandra Kay Williams, daughter of Mrs. Fannie Williams, to Michael Allen Walker, son of Mr. and Mrs. Jess Walker.

Miss Williams is a graduate of Fulton High School and of the St. Joseph School of Nursing in Memphis, Tennessee. She is now a registered nurse on the Fulton Hospital staff.

Mr. Walker is also a graduate of Fulton High School and is presently an engineering student at the University of Tennessee in Knoxville, Tennessee.

The wedding will be solemnized in the First Christian Church in Fulton on May 29, 1965.

Chestnut Glade Makes Progress In Group Reading

The Chestnut Glade Home Demonstration Club held its regular April meeting in the home of Mrs. James Hicks.

Mrs. W. C. Morrison directed the song "Easter Bonnet" and the devotional, on "Faith" was given by Mrs. Jim Burke. The roll call was answered by each member naming their favorite type of apron.

Announcement was made of a county-wide meeting for instructions in the art of cane seating for chairs. Anyone interested in this craft is invited to attend the meeting. Plans were made for each member to take tetanus vaccine before the May meeting. It was pointed out that this is a very important safety measure.

A report was given by Mrs. V. C. Simpson of the information concerning the Cancer, Crusade, meeting at the Gateway. Mrs. which she received at a recent Harvey Vaughan gave a report on the county-wide trip to Nashville and Mrs. Jim Burke gave a report of the County Council meeting.

A reading report revealed that the reading project is progressing nicely, with several having qualified for a reading certificate and some almost having qualified for an advanced certificate.

Mrs. Jimmie Westbrook gave an interesting report on colors to brighten the home and Mrs. Jim Burke demonstrated several types of lamp shades and gave suggestions for cleaning them.

Mrs. Helen Wiley, home agent, presented a film, "Using Pesticides Safely" which gave valuable information concerning the different types of pesticides for various types of pests. She also gave valuable information on methods of utilizing the nutritional value in the preparation and serving of foods.

The recreation was directed by Mrs. Laverne Owensby.

Gene Shepherd Guest Speaker At WMU Meeting

Fulton County Association of WMU met Monday evening at the Mt. Carmel Baptist Church. Gene Shepherd, of Sikeston, Missouri, a senior at Union University in Jackson, Tenn., was guest speaker. He was chosen by the Baptist Student Union of Tennessee to serve as a missionary in Germany last summer and the large audience was greatly interested in his mission experiences and the beautiful color slides of Germany, Paris and Switzerland. Those present were most grateful to Mr. Shepherd for coming to the meeting at such short notice, as the previously announced speaker had to cancel in the morning because of a young daughter's emergency operation.

Rev. Paul Jones, pastor of the host church, brought the devotion. The business session was presided over by the president, Mrs. Don Hancock, assisted by Mrs. Roper Jeffress, secretary-treasurer. Mrs. Charles Bennett, WMU president of the host church, welcomed the guests.

Mrs. Paul Stewart of Paducah,

PASTURE WEED CONTROL MEETING

A number of milk processors are becoming increasingly concerned about off flavor in milk caused by certain weeds in dairy pastures and have arranged to have a pasture weed control meeting in Union City, Thursday morning, 10:00 a. m., April 22, at the Farm Bureau Hall in Union City.

We realize that if the soil is dry that very few farmers will be able to spare two hours for a pasture weed control meeting but we are cooperating with the milk processor by arranging for this meeting. Dr. Pete Gosset, Weed Control Specialist from U. T. Extension Service and Mr. Ray Spann, Asst. Dairyman from U. T. Extension Service, will conduct the meeting on proper weed control in pastures.

ALFALFA WORMS

We realize that you might like for alfalfa worms to not be mentioned in this column so often lately, but our 1,500 acre alfalfa crop in Obion County is threatened by the alfalfa weevil worm. During the last week I have been in 45 alfalfa fields in Obion County and about 90 per cent of the fields are infested with the worms and need spraying. It will be necessary to spray the fields twice to control the worms about 7 to 10 days apart. Most farmers are using malathion to control the alfalfa weevil worms.

Below you will find a copy of a letter I received this week from Dr. Charles Thomas, U. T. Extension Entomologist, giving the latest on the Alfalfa Weevil Worm in West Tennessee.

"Alfalfa weevil infestations in West Tennessee presently are very serious. Weevils can be found in all fields except a few new stands. In some fields, where control has not been applied, the weevil infestation runs as high as 300 per square foot.

Most fields should have control applied to them by this time if a first cutting is to be expected. Probably another application will be required from 7 to 10 days later. We also have some indication of alfalfa weevils beginning to lay eggs. This is all the more reason why we should do a good job of control now to prevent alfalfa weevil infestation from lasting through second and third cuttings.

If ground equipment is not used and aerial applications are made, parathion is a cheap and very effective material to use, however, the alfalfa cannot be cut until 15 days after spraying."

SHEEP SHEARING TIME

Warm weather is on us and one farm job that we can get completed while the ground is wet is the shearing of the wool from our sheep. I noticed last week that Mr. Bob Taylor Graham, one of the best sheep growers in Obion County, had already completed shearing all his sheep. Mr. Graham is the chairman of the Obion County Wool Pool which will be held at the L & N Depot on May 10.

Two Demonstrations

W. D. Armstrong, Field Agent in Horticulture from the Princeton sub-experiment station, will be in Fulton County for pecan grafting demonstrations as scheduled below:

Stone and Ledford farm, one mile west of Hickman on Highway 94, at 9:00 a. m. on Thursday, April 29.

Maurice Bondurant farm, two miles north of Cayce, at 9:00 a. m. on Friday, April 30.

Since 1948, more than 3,000 native pecan seedlings have been grafted in Fulton County with improved Northern varieties like Major, Green River and Posey. Many of these trees now produce very high quality pecans annually.

Everyone is invited to attend.

CHESTNUT GLADE

By Mrs. Harvey Vaughn

Mrs. Laverne Owensby, Mrs. Jim Burke and Mrs. Harvey Vaughn represented the Chestnut Glade Club on the trip made to Nashville by members of the Home Demonstration Clubs in the County. Each person seemed to enjoy the trip very much. A visit was made to the Capitol, which was interesting, especially the guided tour that presented so many interesting events in the history of the State, in addition to the beauty of this magnificent building. An interesting and inspiring visit was made to the "Upper Room." Included on the trip for the first time was the visit to the "Cheekwood Garden" and to "Belle Meade Mansion." Each of the places contained many interesting and beautiful objects. The rain failed to dampen the spirits of these club members, who enjoyed a very pleasant trip.

Mrs. Fred Vaughn spent the week end with the Simmons family.

Mr. and Mrs. Bill Smith and Mr. and Mrs. Harvey Vaughn enjoyed a birthday dinner with Mrs. Lucy Gibbs Sunday.

Mrs. Jim Burke visited her sister, Delma, who is seriously ill in the Veterans Hospital in Nashville. Their mother, Mrs. Jonakin, is spending some time in Nashville with her. She was moved there from the hospital in Amarillo, Texas, recently.

The Cooley family have moved to the farm recently sold by Mrs. Ray Bondurant.

Mrs. Ray Bondurant is a patient at the Baptist Hospital in Memphis.

Mr. and Mrs. Dale Cummings and Mr. and Mrs. Bonnie Cummings carried race horses to Lexington, Ky., last week end, where they will begin entering the racing season.

Get-Well wishes to Mrs. Sam Atkinson, who has been a patient in the Volunteer Hospital for several days.

Get-Well wishes also to Neuman Croft and Lonnie Anderson, who are patients in the Fulton Hospital.

A most unusual and unexpected duty has been experienced by this correspondent during this term of court. Very few women have been asked to serve as Foreman of the Weakley County Grand Jury. This has proven to be very interesting.

PIERCE STATION

By Mrs. Charles Lowe

Nice crowds attended the Easter service at Chapel Hill and Johnson's Grove Sunday.

Mrs. James Warren gave her Sunday School pupils an Easter egg hunt Saturday afternoon. Twenty-three had a wonderful time. David Royce Greer found the prize egg and got an Easter rabbit. Mrs. Warren gave all her pupils a cute basket with two tulips in it at her class Sunday morning.

Mr. and Mrs. Mancel Roach's Easter visitors were Mrs. Dorothy Willis from Union City and Mr. and Mrs. Don Huffsteter from Dyersburg.

Horace Norman is still a patient in the Fulton Hospital. His daughter, Mrs. Louis Roby of I. shville, is with him and her husband will be spending his vacation here.

Mr. and Mrs. Frank Ferguson spent Saturday night and Sunday with Mr. Ferguson's parents in Troy, and attended church there.

Mr. and Mrs. Virgil Green, of Mayfield, visited Mr. and Mrs. John Smith Sunday.

Mr. and Mrs. Lester Alford, of Dyersburg, spent Easter with Mrs. Mattie Rogers.

Mr. and Mrs. Kelton Hardy, of near Union City, visited Mr. and Mrs. Felix Davis Sunday.

Ernest Lowe is improving, after being quite sick for a week.

DUKEDOM NEWS

By Mrs. Hillman Westbrook

Good Springs is beginning to look at Home Coming Day, which will be the fourth Sunday in May, as usual. Plans are being made for a full day and everyone is urged to make plans to spend as much of the day as possible with them. Church services will be at 11 a. m. on that Sunday, with Sunday School preceding at 10.

Mrs. A. C. Bell is improving at her home, but still spending most of her time in bed. She will return to Memphis about May 1st for check-up and further treatment.

Mrs. Ada Ross was able to return to her home from Jones Hospital on Thursday.

Joe Cunningham and sons Donald and David, of Somerset, Ohio, visited Mrs. Winnie Cunningham for the Easter vacation.

Mrs. Opal Outland, from Chicago, is visiting with her brothers, Basil and Loyd Watkins, and families.

Mrs. Zue Webb and Mrs. Maude Vincent are still in the hospitals in Fulton.

Mrs. Beulah Bailey is slowly improving, following her eye operation.

MOUNTAIN TOP

"MOUNTAIN TOP EXPERIENCES" ... It is not yet vacation time, however that time is approaching and we start remembering the wonderful feelings and experiences of our last trip to the mountains, and now we can start to plan new adventures.

That closeness, and the exciting feeling when worshipping the Lord is often referred to as a "MOUNTAIN TOP EXPERIENCE." We invite you to come worship the Lord in his house, and receive the joys of being close to God. Attend church this week.

The Church is God's appointed agency in this world for spreading the knowledge of His love for man and of His demand for man to respond to that love by loving his neighbor. Without this grounding in the love of God, no government or society or way of life will long persevere and the freedoms which we hold so dear will inevitably perish. Therefore, even from a selfish point of view, one should support the Church for the sake of the welfare of himself and his family. Beyond that, however, every person should uphold and participate in the Church because it tells the truth about man's life, death and destiny; the truth which alone will set him free to live as a child of God.

College Chorus To Highlight Music Program

ROBERT K. BAAR

The Music Department of the Fulton Woman's Club will present its annual Evening of Music at 8 p. m., May 3, in the Fulton High school gymnasium. This year the department will present the 61-voice choir of Murray State College, under the direction of Professor Robert K. Baar.

Professor Baar has directed the choir for fourteen years and, during this time, the choir has sung in St. Louis, Chicago, Cleveland, Philadelphia and New York, plus many local concerts.

This June the choir will leave on a concert tour of seven countries in Europe.

The Music Department is proud to be able to bring this choir to Fulton.

South Fulton Church Stages Building Event

The first spade of dirt was turned by Cleo Peoples, chairman of the building committee, and the pastor, Rev. Gerald Stow, at the groundbreaking ceremonies held last Sunday for the new South Fulton Baptist auditorium.

Others participating in the groundbreaking were: Tom Connell, chairman of the Board of Deacons; Mrs. C. D. Travis, WMU president; James Legate, Sunday School superintendent; Jim Hicks, training director, and Bobby Winstead, music director.

Construction of the $90,000 auditorium was begun this week by Cumberland Industries of Nashville and is scheduled to be completed by August 1.

No Flood Danger Seen For Hickman

Only the flood plains of Western Kentucky will feel the high waters of the Mississippi river unless there is a major change in flood levels, officials report.

The levee from Hickman to the Tennessee line, which protects about 20,000 acres of cotton land, is in no danger unless water rises higher than expected, Fulton county Agent John Watts said Monday. He added there is no threat to the floodwall at Hickman.

An area of about 20,000 acres of cropland from Hickman to Vickliffe, is flooded as in past years. But the higher water on the Mississippi is not expected to greatly increase the size of the flooded region.

Include Conservation Advises ASC Chairman

Farmers who are gearing up for springtime operations were urged today to "include conservation in our plans and thinking."

Roy Bard, Chairman, County Agricultural Stabilization and Conservation Committee, reminded farmers that those who need some particular conservation project on their land this year and who have not already done so are invited to discuss their plans with the ASC County Committee.

NOTEBOOK—

Dear Mrs. Westpheling:

Please find enclosed our check for $50.00. We admire you and the people of Fulton for undertaking a task this large and we would like to be able to contribute a much larger sum but at this time, we have used the complete advertising budget for this store.

Maybe in the future we will be in a better position to help. We wish you the very best of success.

Yours very truly,
BIG-VALU FOOD STORES

While the financial support is great, support from some distinguished people is great, too! Recently we wrote a letter to Mrs. John Sherman Cooper, wife of the well known Senator from Kentucky, to officiate at an impressive program connected with the proposed arts and crafts exhibit. So that you'll get that "ole feeling" of doing something worthwhile, I'm going to reprint Mrs. Cooper's letter.

Dear Jo:

Congratulations, president of the International Banana Festival Association. I cannot tell you how much I admire you for making Fulton such an international spot, and also being a candidate for the General Assembly.

We both appreciate your invitation to the Festival. I see that John has accepted an invitation to speak in Barboursville on October 1st, which, unfortunately is an awfully long way from you. I most certainly will make every effort to come and I know John will too.

Grateful thanks for thinking of us. Always love from,
Lorraine

Personally and on behalf of the Festival, I shall always be grateful to Lorraine Cooper. Last Spring when I was in Washington to talk with the State Department about that agency's participation in the Festival, Mrs. Cooper made appointments for Larry Metcalfe and me that would have taken months for us to do on our own. She's a wonderful, wonderful person, and I look forward, as you do, to her very appreciated visit here.

Sports Final

R. Paul Westpheling, III

Well, it's that time of year again. The Fulton Bulldogs will hold their annual spring football game at Memorial stadium under the lights Friday night April 23, at 7:30 p. m. The teams will be divided into the Blue and White sections, with two of last year's starters on the blue and one on the White.

The line-up for the Blue will have at ends Mike Butts and Loyd Bone; tackles will be Steve Mann and Ronnie Bennett; at guards will be Mike Gargus and Jimmy King; snapping the ball will be Buddy Myers; quarterback will be Rodney Foster; halfback Mike Stephens running the ball with fullback Phil Flannigan and wingback Eddie Williamson.

The White team will have David Dunn and Stevens Alexander at ends; Robert Thurman and Steve Jones at tackles; Dennis Lohaus and Wayne Lohaus at Guards; Max Omar will be snapping the ball to Randall Roper; Joe Hood-enpyle will be the halfback, David Forrest the fullback and Henry Armstrong the wingback.

This game will be a preview of next year's action when the Bulldogs go into their regular season. Come on out to Memorial stadium Friday night. Tickets are $1.00 and the proceeds will go to help finance the boys' insurance. For an exciting thrill packed game, see the Blue vs. White at Memorial stadium.
